ICL and YHC require that every individual who participates in an ICL activity sign an Agreement to Participate. This form must be submitted to the ICL Registrar as an integral part of the course registration form.

AGREEMENT TO PARTICIPATE

- I am aware that participating in the activities of the Institute for Continuing Learning (ICL) can be dangerous and involve many risks of injury. I understand the dangers and risks may include serious injury, impairment to parts of my body, general health or well being, or death. Because of the dangers of participating in the activities of ICL, I recognize the importance of following the class leader’s directions regarding techniques and training, and to obey such instructions.
- In consideration of the ICL permitting me to participate and to engage in these activities, I hereby voluntarily assume and understand all risks associated with participation and agree to exonerate and save harmless the ICL, Young Harris College, their agents, servants and employees, and the owner(s) and/or operator(s) of other venues occasionally used by ICL from any and all liability claims, causes of action, or demands of any kind and nature whatsoever which may arise by or in connection with my participation in these activities.
- ICL, including, but not necessarily limited to, its members, officers, executive board, course leaders, classes, seminars, publications, and advertising, does not advocate nor support any political, governmental, religious, or charitable agenda or policy and does not permit such advocacy or support in any ICL sponsored activity.
- ICL reserves the right to deny class admittance and/or cancel membership to any person whose conduct is deemed disruptive.
- ICL is a program of continued learning for mature adults. Since the curriculum is specifically designed for adults, children are not accepted in the program. Guests of a class member, who are 18 years and older, are permitted to attend a single session, provided such is approved by the class coordinator and course leader.
- I certify that I have read, understand, and voluntarily signed this agreement. If more than one individual is registering for classes, each individual must sign. I also understand the Covid Guidelines and Covid disclaimer on page 13.
